From Our Senior Warden

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

Happy New Year!!!

I could not be happier to draft this message for our January/February 2019 Newsletter!

To reflect on all that has occurred, over not even the last six months:

We wished Father Rob and Maggie safe travels back to California and prepared for an unknown period of transition moving forward.

I began to write, my prayers, goals and intent, were to encourage you, our parishioners, to have faith, to believe in the strength of “our little church on the hill, with the big heart” (thank you, Ray). To welcome the Supply Priests as we were able to provide them (thank you, Todd for your particular efforts here), to join together in worship for our combined summer service schedule, and to pray, that your vestry will work hard to provide what is best for our parish.

I feel beyond blessed in how my particular prayers were answered. Wonderful Supply Priests consistently appeared available, our congregation joined together and embraced (as schedules permitted) our summer service schedule, and, to ultimately be fortunate and blessed to welcome as our Supply Priest on September 9, 2018, without any notion of where this would lead us, the Reverend Jane Jeuland.

I believe that I can now share, that when I accepted the position of your Senior Warden, with the knowledge that we would be in need of a new Rector for “our little church on the hill with the big heart”, my personal solitary prayer was that when I concluded my service, I would be allowed to share that my prayers had been answered. I cannot begin to figure out just how this occurred. I remember Bishop Ian Douglas offering prayers, and suggesting I, myself, pray to the Holy Spirit.

I will leave it there. We begin an exciting new year with Reverend Jane. We welcome her family, Reverend Eric, Elias and Jonah. I wish you all health and happiness for 2019 and the years to come.

Faithfully,
Susan Vasone

THE MISSIONAL CHURCH: OUR NEXT CHALLENGE

We were thrilled on December 30th, the last service of 2018, to announce that we have completed our agreement with Rev. Jane Jeuland to serve as our Missional Priest in Charge, effective January 1, 2019. It was a wonderful way to start the New Year – Rev. Jane and CCT have felt like an ideal fit from the beginnings of her interim supply role and a re-awakening of the spirit of Christ Church and renewal of the faith of its members has been noticeable. She has brought change and we have shown a willingness to embrace it. There seem to be a growing core of worshipers in the pews on Sundays and the packed Christmas Eve service was magical. So what will be next for us in 2019?

In my view, now that we have filled the critical role of spiritual leader, and are feeling blessed and hopeful, we need to better understand what a missional priest and missional church is before we charge ahead. As a Missional Priest, Rev. Jane, whom we all know has another important and fulfilling job as a Chaplain at Yale New Haven Hospital, will be devoting 12-15 hours per week to Christ Church. We will work together to be as flexible, efficient and effective within this range, but the truth is that after writing sermons, planning and leading services, that leaves only a few additional hours per week to work out of the parish office or conduct pastoral visits (or take care of CCT business from home). This is the reality of what we can afford today. It is far different from the ¾ time position held by Father Rob and, when you think about it, it is somewhat hard to believe we are not that many years removed from having a string of full-time rectors – preaching on Sundays, living in the rectory, being visible in the community, handling sermons and snow removal, hymns and leaky roofs, leading us both spiritually and operationally. The Diocese tells us that parishes with Missional Priests must have the “capacity and will to imagine a different future with less than half time clergy.”

I don't know what that future is, but I believe that Rev. Jane's presence is a gift and that our current situation is an opportunity. A book about transition provided by the Diocese says, “We believe God's abundant spirit is bringing new life to the church in America, but it looks a lot different than we imagined when we started.” We're being called into “a new imagination about being God's people.” It is not the end of tradition, but congregational life and the role of the clergy will need to change. As a result, we will fundamentally alter our focus and attention as a missional congregation. It is a disruptive time, but energizing.

With declining attendance, church leaders of this era often concentrate on “fixing problems,” and “keeping the doors open.” A common New Year's resolution for churches, “attracting more people” is admirable but generally as successful as our own resolutions to “go to the gym more,” and “eat healthier.” In 2019, a good start would be to better understand our evolving responsibilities of working together on all aspects of parish life and reaching others who might feel the same spirit, while re-engaging in our mission with God and our community.

With patience and open minds, we can begin the process by listening, discerning, experimenting, reflecting, and deciding. Together.

Todd Rossel
Jr. Warden

Ever feel that you'd like to be involved in the worship service but are not quite sure what to do?

That's very common ... and we're here to help! We have lots of opportunities for our parishioners to serve at our 8am and at our 10am worship service. You can be a greeter, a crucifer, a chalice bearer or a lector. You can help our Altar Guild prepare the altar and you can help after the 10am service with counting. There's a lot to do to keep our worship service running smoothly each week! Feel free to talk with Rev. Jane about serving or contact Maryanne in the Parish Office. We think you'd find it a meaningful experience.

CHURCH RECEIVES MAJOR GIFT FROM JEAN AND DAVID WALLACE FOUNDATION

On Sunday, December 16th, Anne Wallace Juge and Mary Wallace Strizek came to our 10am service on behalf of their mother, Jean Wallace of Greenwich, CT and their late father David. They presented a check for $250,000 to the vestry from the foundation in honor of their mother Jean. Mrs. Wallace was not feeling well enough to attend the service, but sent her daughters as emissaries on her behalf. The Wallace's have had a long association with Christ Church. Mrs. Wallace grew up in the house immediately down the hill from the church on the same side of Tashua road and attended church with her parents, John and Edna Ives McLean, for whom the newer addition to the church is named. This addition was made possible in large part by a previous major gift of $500,000 from the Wallace Foundation in honor of her parents. The family has been generous supporters of the mission, ministries and operations of Christ Church throughout the years. The good works made possible by the family over the years have and will continue to be an enduring legacy and benefit to all those served by our church now and for generations to come.

Prayers were offered by the Reverend Jane Jeuland and the congregation for the ongoing loving care and health of Jean and her family, and in loving memory of David, who died last December. Mary and Anne sat in what they remembered to be the pew their grandparents and mother sat in weekly. Anne had recently visited the church this past summer with her mother and spent time with our senior warden Susan Vasone. Mary, who lives in Colorado, made her first visit back to the church since being baptized here! It was a joyous celebration of these loving members of our church family.

HOLIDAY OUTREACH AT CHRIST CHURCH TASHUA

Thank you to our caring parishioners who donated an overflowing tableful of coats and winter items to our coat drive! Because of renovations at St. John's, we were asked to bring our donations to Trinity Southport. They, in turn, delivered the clothing to the Center at BICC (a Muslim outreach in Bridgeport). Thank you to Martine Yourieff for delivering the coats to Trinity Southport.

A big thank you to everyone who "undecorated" our Jesse Tree and brought in so many beautifully wrapped presents for the men and women of Prospect House. What a wonderful Christmas present for so many! A special thank you to Ray and Betty Hofbauer for delivering the presents Christmas week.

And last but certainly not least, thank you to all those who donated new toys and gift items for the McGivney Community Center Christmas Store! We are confident that there were many happy kids on Christmas morning, watching their families opening their gifts. A special thank you to Eliane and Marala Baijal for delivering the gifts and for continuing this outreach ministry for another year.

We have the most kind, generous and compassionate parishioners!
We are so thankful that you are a part of our wonderful community.

Thank you all for making this Christmas Season brighter for so many!

Choir members Ray Hofbauer and Mark Baird attended the 60th anniversary of the Trinity College service of Lessons and Carols at the Chapel on campus in Hartford recently with Bishop Laura Ahrens in attendance.

CHRIST CHURCH PROVIDES HOLIDAY MEAL AT CALVARY ST. GEORGE IN BRIDGEPORT

On Monday, December 10th, volunteers from Christ Church participated in our ongoing feeding mission for the less fortunate at Calvary St. George Church on Clinton Ave. in Bridgeport. Led by the indomitable Martha Kaechele, our merry band of volunteers including Martine Yourieff, Todd Rossel, John Flader, Margaret Marcotte, Amy Germano, Susan Mitola, Mark Baird and Connie Vogt (Martha's neighbor) put on a delicious holiday dinner for the poor and homeless. Thank you as well to all who donated food, cupcakes, Christmas candy and clementines. It is truly heartening and perhaps more fulfilling to be on the giving end of this ministry and see the happy faces of people enjoying a holiday meal! While we have traditionally hosted from 70 to 100+ people in the past, the good news is that these numbers have recently been going down. The average number of people served dropped to about 50 in November, and in the thirties in December - we presume to more people finding work - truly a blessing! Nonetheless, we served 62 "first timers" - the full plates before we serve seconds, so the good word must have gone out. We were prepared and had enough food for all. Every last bit of food we brought was consumed and sent home with attendees - a great feeling indeed!

Come join us for our next dinner on April 8, 2019 - we need volunteers to help organize, cook and serve these folks. Truly, the good feelings one receives for helping those less fortunate in this feeding mission far surpasses the efforts put in!

Christmas Eve Services

It was a very special evening at Christ Church Tashua.

... There must've been a lot of very nice parishioners at Christ Church Tashua this year ...

Thank you Santa for visiting us!

Christmas Eve Services

CHRIST CHURCH TASHUA VESTRY MEETING POLICY

Parishioners are welcome to attend Vestry meetings if they have a particular concern, idea or proposal that should be brought to the attention of the Vestry. A written request should be made to one of the Vestry officers or the Rector a week in advance for inclusion on the meeting agenda, along with any documentation to be reviewed in advance of the meeting. Approximately the first 15 minutes of the next Vestry meeting will then be set aside to address the parishioner's concerns, ideas or proposals. Otherwise, in the interest of covering all of the items on the agenda in a timely way, Vestry meetings are generally closed to parishioners.
